

International
Code of Conduct
Association

The Basic Rules to Respect as an International Security Officer

In a Foreign Country

- 1- Dress, think, talk, act and behave in a manner befitting the dignity of a disciplined, caring, considerate, mature, respected and trusted Security Officer, displaying the highest integrity and impartiality. Have pride in your position as a Security Officer and do not abuse or misuse your authority.
- 2- Respect the law of the country and its citizens, their local culture, traditions, customs and practices
- 3- Treat the citizens of the country with respect, courtesy and consideration. You are there as a guest to help them and in so doing will be welcomed with admiration. Neither solicit nor accept any material reward, or gift unless it's an Official ceremony for recognition.
- 4- Do not indulge in immoral acts of sexual, physical or psychological abuse or exploitation of the local population, especially women and children.
- 5- Respect and regard the human rights of all. Support and aid the infirm, sick and weak. Do not act in revenge or with malice, in particular when dealing with prisoners, detainees or people in your custody.
- 6- Properly care for and account for all Company's money, vehicles, equipment and property assigned to you and do not trade or barter with them to seek personal benefits
- 7- Show respect for and promote the environment, including the flora and fauna, of the country.
- 8- Do not engage in excessive consumption of alcohol or any consumption or trafficking of drugs.
- 9- Exercise the utmost discretion in handling confidential information and matters of official business which can put lives into danger or soil the image of the Company.